PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It's that time of year again, when summer gives way to the crisp, colorful days of autumn, bringing about a time of change and transformation. Much like the transition from summer to fall our Compass Club is also embarking on a season of change as we ready ourselves for a year of sharing friendship with our fellow club members.

What a beautiful day at Green Bluff for our luncheon at High Country Orchards. As usual, our lunch was precisely what we needed for a tasty piece of autumn. Our vibrant speaker psychologist Candess Campbell was very compelling and captivating. A select few even got a reading.

Our annual auction headed by Shirley Shirkey and Deena Munguia will be held on November 1st at the Ramada Inn. As a reminder this is our primary means of acquiring operating funds for our club. As the weather is cooling and you are indoors more, please go through your closets, and any other nook and cranny that may contain a treasure that you have forgotten and no longer appreciate. All interest groups are encouraged to donate baskets, dinners, or whatever else is in their repertoire of skills. You are welcome to bring your friends and neighbors. This is a fun luncheon that is sure to entertain everyone.

I'm so grateful to be part of such a terrific group of women. We have such diversity within our club and so many life experiences to exchange to share with each other. If you are new to the club there is no reason to be bored and lonely. Compass Club has a variety of interest groups that you can join. Any time women come together with a collective intention, it's a powerful thing. Whether it's making a quilt, a book club, playing cards, drinking wine, going to the theater, bowling and so many other things where there is a collective intention, you know magic will happen!

With Warm Regards,
Kathie Heim

JUST ANOTHER DAMN AUCTION

Hi Ladies, you all know the auction is on its way, November 1. Without your donations there would be no auction. The Auction Committee is counting on you to get those donations in or bring them on the day of the auction. Remember that a procurement form must be filled out for each item you donate. Forms will be at the auction or can be downloaded from the website at spokanecompassclub.org. Remember to bring a friend. Any item that is not sold at the auction must be taken home by the person who brought it. If you have any questions, call Deena Munguia or Shirley Shirkey. Hope to see you at the auction!

IMPORTANT NOTE: PLEASE READ

Compass Club of Spokane's mission is to promote friendship among our members. This organization allows women to gather and enjoy each other's company in many different ways. That being said I would like to give an annual gentle reminder that as per our Bylaws Article III, Section D – Duties of Members – “The Compass Club Membership Directory shall not be used as a marketing or advertising tool.” This means whether small or large, you cannot use the Compass Club membership for a financial gain.

WINE TASTING

Wine Tasting will be on November 5th at a different, temporary location, which is Vino Wine Shop, 222 S. Washington Street, Spokane.

The tasting will begin at 5:15 PM and end at 6:45 PM. The tasting fee remains at $10 per person.

A few weeks ago we learned that The Fairwinds again will be undergoing more renovations. This means that the banquet room we have been using for the past 6 seasons will be unavailable for the rest of 2016.

As WTG members should know, we do not have any tasting event in January, due to year-end holidays. So, however, we will return to The Fairwinds on February 4th at the usual time of 5:00 PM.

For these two 2016 dates, we will be overlapping with Vino's regular Saturday tastings, which run from 2 to 5 PM. Tom says this should work out but, initially, parking may be a problem.

For your calendaring purposes, here then is the information for our tastings this season:

For the remainder of 2016 at Vino:
11/5 and 12/3.

For 2017 at The Fairwinds:
2/4; 3/4; 4/1; 5/6 and 6/3

Further details will be handled by WTG member emails. Please send your questions, if any, to Dan or Kit.

Thanks and cheers,
Sue and Dan Harris
Karen and Kit Eckel

We are the best,
Ann Fly

Compass Club Luncheon Minutes October 4, 2016, High Country Orchard

The meeting was called to order at 11:40 am by President Kathie Heim. Guests were introduced and the minutes of the September luncheon were approved as written. The treasurer's report was approved as presented.

Directories were made available and President Kathie reminded members that Compass Club’s mission is to promote friendships and that the directory is not to be used as a marketing or advertising tool. She then related a humorous story about being over 50 years old.

The Centerpiece drawing was held.

Ways and Means: Deena reported that she received many donations today and thanked those who brought them. She reminded everyone that each and every item needs a procurement form. Members were encouraged to volunteer to assist at the auction in November and a signup sheet was passed around.

The drawing was held for the 50/50 drawing and Karen Koch won $86.50.

Interest Groups: April’s hearing is set for October 21 or thereabouts so she still isn’t able to attend Compass events. Shari filled in and called for the reports.

Theater Goers: Carol reported that the next outing will be Streetcar Named Desire and Forever Plaid will be the play for December.

Happy Feet Hikers: The group will meet on the first and third Mondays through the winter.

Golf/Bowling: Golf has finished for the year and Bowling will begin at Valley Bowl in November on the second and fourth Mondays at 10:30 or 11:00 am.

Culinary Corner: This group will attend the final Farmers Market at Kendall Yards on Wednesday, Oct. 12 then will go to Nectar Wine Bar.

Scrapbooking and Crafting: They meet the 4th Thursday of the month

Daytime Books: The group has gotten quite large so they will be meeting at the Shadle Library. For all interest groups you can contact the leader as listed in the directory for details.

Birgitta thanked everyone for all the cards and calls during her “vacation”.

Philanthropy: The pumpkin and apple pie were donated by High Country Orchards and were won by Jan Lammers. There will be no philanthropy tickets sold at the Nov. auction but Ann Fly said there will be a secret prize for those who seek her out to purchase tickets.

The program was presented by Candace Campbell who did readings to contact deceased loved ones for those who volunteered.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:23.

Respectfully submitted by Pat Partovi, Recording Secretary

CORRECTION TO DIRECTORY: Please update your directory. Ladies, please review your name in the directory for any errors. There was difficulty with the program this year. I will then put the changes needed in the newsletter. You may contact me at dmspiger@gmail.com.

Candess M. Campbell, PhD, presented a fascinating program on how we all possess the ability to activate our intuitive abilities, and the power to heal ourselves physically and emotionally. She did several readings among the attendees, and provided an entertaining afternoon for us all. If you are interested in investigating further, she has several books available: 12 Weeks to Self-Healing: Transforming Pain through Energy Medicine, and Live Intuitively: Journal the Wisdom of Your Soul.
